Media Information Release

Date: February 13, 2011

Type of Incident: 110 year anniversary of the formation of the Ketchikan Police Department

On February 13, 1901, the Ketchikan Police Department was formed with the adoption of Ordinance #4. The ordinance directed that the Deputy United States Marshal assigned to Ketchikan at the time should be appointed as a local police officer.

This Sunday, your police department will celebrate 110 years of serving and protecting the citizens of Ketchikan. To mark this occasion, tours of the police department are being offered from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. Fingerprint/DNA kits and safety reflectors will be handed out. This is also an opportunity to meet "Booker," our new drug dog. All citizens are welcome to stop by for some cake and help celebrate the occasion.

All charges reported in this media release are only accusations.
All defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
