MAYOR AND COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilmember Shay stated the people have spoken and that he was behind the library choice a hundred percent, and reiterated the need to get to the 35% design criteria. He was very gratified the gag law measure was defeated. Councilmember Shay congratulated everyone that worked on making this happen.

Councilmember Jason Harris is pleased with the way the vote turned out, and hoped the project can move forward in a timely manner.

Councilmember Coose stated he just wanted to move forward and get the library built.

Councilmember Olsen stated he too was pleased with the outcome of the election and is ready to move ahead. He hoped Ketchikan was doing all it could to help Hoonah during their time of need.

Mayor Williams noted there is a vacant house on Stedman Street that has been discharging water for over a year. He thanked everyone for attending tonight's meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

As there was no further business, the Council adjourned at 7:07 p.m.
